

Task : create a react website that contains a chatbot widget. The unique and more features in the widget will give more points. The chatbot widget should be able to call json data in form of GET and POST request. You can use library like materialize or any else. The use of node.js for server creation and idea of node module is essential to showcase. Lastly you have to submit your answer before 28th April 2020.

You are expected to revert back in case of any problem.

You have to submit the assignment with In the timeline You can also show the progress report